

GBM^c & Associates, Inc. is a multimedia environmental consulting firm located southwest of Little Rock, Arkansas in the city of Bryant. The 25+ person firm includes engineers, geologists, and scientists providing environmental compliance and regulatory support for industrial and municipal clients in Arkansas and surrounding States, plus nationally for Fortune 500 companies.

GBM^c has an immediate staff opening for an entry-level Environmental Engineer in our Bryant, Arkansas office:

Environmental Engineer

Education: BS Engineering (ABET Accredited Civil, Mechanical, Biological)

Qualifications/skills: Registered EIT, MS Word, MS Excel, AutoCAD, HEC-RAS

Salary: Negotiable

The primary job requirements will be to provide engineering and technical support to the functional service groups within GBM^c & Associates. Anticipated job responsibilities include:

- prepare detailed engineering design documents (conceptual, preliminary, final)
- develop project cost estimates using regional indices
- create documents and plans to support pollution prevention and spill preparedness
- engineering support during capital construction
- contribute to engineering designs for storm water controls, wastewater treatment systems, site utilities, and gravity/pressure piping systems
- engineering support for wetlands/stream restoration projects
- assist hydrological/water quality modeling efforts
- perform HEC-RAS hydraulic modeling of stream and river systems.

Qualified candidates may submit a resume' and University transcript with ENGINEER in the subject line to Chuck Campbell, PE (ccampbell@gbmcassoc.com). For more information about GBM^c & Associates, please visit www.gbmcassoc.com.