

Location: Bryant, AR
Salary: Commensurate with experience
Available: Immediate opening

Senior Environmental Engineer

Education: BS Engineering

Experience: 10 years (minimum) including:

- Environmental regulatory or compliance responsibility
- Construction/Capital Project Management
- Engineering Design
- Wastewater/Water Treatment Operations and Troubleshooting
- Water quality modeling
- Management/development of engineering staff
- Business development
- Multimedia environmental auditing

Qualifications/skills: Professional Engineer, MS Word, MS Excel, AutoCAD, HEC-RAS

The primary requirements will be to lead the general engineering efforts and provide technical support to the functional service groups within GBM[®] & Associates. Anticipated job responsibilities include:

- Solicit engineering projects and prepare scope/budget proposals for submittal to prospective clients
- Prepare technical documents and review/edit the work products of others
- Assist the recruitment and mentoring of engineering staff
- Direct the development of detailed Civil/Environmental design documents (conceptual, preliminary, final)
- Develop capital construction cost estimates using regional indices and vendor-provided information
- Create documents to support pollution prevention and spill preparedness in accordance with State and Federal regulations
- Contribute to engineering designs for storm water controls, wastewater/water treatment systems, site utilities, and gravity/pressure piping systems
- Provide engineering support for wetlands/stream restoration projects
- Assist hydrological/water quality modeling efforts
- Perform HEC-RAS hydraulic modeling of stream and river systems
- Support the environmental compliance efforts for municipal and industrial clients
- Participate on multimedia environmental auditing teams

Please respond with a detailed resume' to: Engineer@gbmcassoc.com